D.O.No.67(42)/PF-II/2016

28th April, 2017

Dear Secretary,

The Hon'ble Prime Minister in his address on the 11th Civil Services Day on 21st April, 2017 emphasized that every policy, programme or scheme of the Government needs to be outcome-centric and its implementation should ensure that the intended outcome is achieved. As you are aware, for the first time, the Outcome Budget 2017-18 has been made a part of the Budget documents, which were laid during the Budget presentation. The Outcome Budget has been prepared through inputs of the Ministries/Departments and reflects what the Ministries want to achieve during the year.

2. In view of this, I urge you to kindly constantly focus on the outcomes for each Scheme/Project as projected by you in the Outcome Budget 2017-18. Moreover, the same should also be taken into account during the appraisal of various schemes for their continuation. I am sure this exercise would bring in greater accountability and efficiency in the implementation of Government schemes and projects and greater efficiency of public expenditure.

Warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

Ashok Lavasa
