D. O. No. Y-18020/5/2022-Trg
Dated: 17th November, 2022

Dear Sir,

As you may be aware that the Ministry of Statistics & Programme Implementation (MoSPI), Government of India has instituted an international award in Statistics in memory of Prof P. C. Mahalanobis, a world renowned and eminent statistician. This award is given to a statistician from a developing country, who has made significant contributions to statistical theory and practice and the promotion of best statistical practices as well. The award is given away biennially and carries a cash prize of USD 10,000/- along with a Citation, Memento and Certificate. The Award is managed by the International Statistical Institute (ISI), Netherlands. More information about the award is available on the website of ISI at <https://www.isi-web.org/about/awards/mahalanobis-award>.

2. In this series, 10 (Ten) awards have been given so far. The first award was given to Prof. C. R. Rao, former Director of the Indian Statistical Institute, Kolkata during the 54th Session of the International Statistical Institute at Berlin in August 2003 and 10th award was given Professor Heleno Bolfarine, Professor at the Institute of Mathematics and Statistics at the University of São Paulo, Brazil during 63rd ISI - World Statistics Congress (ISI-WSC) in virtual mode during 11-16 July, 2021.

3. Nominations for Prof. P. C. Mahalanobis International Award in Statistics for the year 2023 are invited from the willing and eligible candidates. Nominations can be submitted online at <https://www.isi-web.org/node/2257>. Last date for submission of nominations is 13th January, 2023.

4. It is requested that call for nomination for the award may be circulated widely in the institutes/organizations under your jurisdiction and eligible candidates may be encouraged to submit their nominations for the award.

With Regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Anupam Bhatnagar)
